Boroughs JCC

Snakes, turtles, even a chinchilla visited with children as part of the Animal Discoveries program at the Boroughs Jewish Community Center in Westborough. A specialist from Animal Adventures brought an array of mammals, reptiles, amphibians and insects.

Joey and Josh Samra and Alex Friedberg meet a carpet python.

Meredith Welch has a chinchilla plopped on her head by Animal Adventures guide Danielle Leger.

Allie Mancall of Framingham and Jordyn Kelley of Easton on Lake Potanipo.

Camp Tevya

At Camp Tevya on Lake Potanipo, boys and girls, ages 8-16, play on land and in the water, and experience Judaism through prayer and Israeli dance and music. Tevya, which is in Brookline, N.H., is the largest of three Cohen Camps. The other two are the coed Camp Tel Noar in Hampstead, N.H., and the all-girl Camp Pembroke in Pembroke, Mass. Jonathan Cohen is the third generation in his family to lead the camps, the earliest of which was founded in 1935.
